(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT [DR. (SHRIMATI) RITA VERMA]: (a) and (b) Operation Black Board Scheme would be subsumed in Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA) from the next Plan period, commencing from 1/4/2002. The liability of salary of teachers appointed under the Operation Block Board (OB) Scheme would be transferred to the State Government concerned, including Assam, after the Ninth Plan.

(c) The amount sanctioned and released to Assam for payment of salary to teachers appointed under OB scheme during the last three years is given below:

		(Rs. in Lakhs)
1999-2000	-	1141.03
2000-2001	-	2305.79

The State Government was asked to pay salary to teachers appointed under the OB scheme, for which funds had been released as above. No funds were released during 2001-2002, as the State Government had unspent balance towards payment of salary.

The State Government has now informed that the unspent balance towards payment of salary has been released in February 2002 for payment of salary to the OB teachers.

(d) and (e) Under the scheme of Operation Blackboard, the salary of teachers appointed under the scheme will be reimbursed by the Centre only till the end of Five Year Plan period in which the appointments are made. At the end of the Five Year Plan period, liabilities with regard to teacher salaries are transferred to the State Government.
